

Apply for a Counseling Fellowship

Are you a current Counseling student committed to providing Counseling services to communities across the United States? You may be eligible for one of 95 doctoral- and master's-level Counseling fellowships through the NBCCF Minority Fellowship Program (MFP).

Available awards range from $12,000 up to $22,000.

- up to 20 doctoral fellowships for Counselor Education and Supervision students
- up to 32 master's fellowships for Mental Health Counseling students
- up to 43 master's fellowships for Addictions Counseling students

Basic Eligibility

- Applicants must be a U.S. citizen or have permanent resident status.
- Applicants must not already possess a master's or doctoral degree in a behavioral health field.
- Applicants must not receive any other federal program training funds (except for federal loans or work-study programs).
- Applicants must have completed courses in fall 2025 or spring 2026 in an accredited Counseling program. View individual applications for specific program accreditation requirements.
- Applicants must be currently enrolled and in good standing in an accredited Counseling program. View individual applications for specific program accreditation requirements.
- Applicants must commit to teach, administer services, conduct research, and/or provide direct Mental Health Counseling or substance use disorder services to at least one community across the United States within 1 year of graduation and for the duration of 2 years postgraduation.

For more detailed eligibility information or to apply, visit nbccf.org/programs.

NBCC Foundation | 3 Terrace Way | Greensboro, North Carolina 27403
336-232-0376 | nbccf.org | foundation@nbcc.org An affiliate of the National Board for Certified Counselors, Inc.

The MFP is made possible by a grant from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and is administered by the NBCC Foundation. Please be advised that all NBCCF MFP awards are subject to future funding from SAMHSA.

